

CROSS APTL is an universal automatic payment terminal that can be used for cash or credit card payment when receiving and issuing various tickets.

Built on the experience with CROSS APT, the CROSS APTL is suitable for applications with less functionality needed. CROSS APTL is built to be lightweight and cost-effective while the measures of safety and rugged construction remain preserved.

KEY BENEFITS:

- Cost-effective payment terminal
- Possibility to integrate various third-party components
- Full equipment color customization

KEY FEATURES:

- Rugged construction
- Multi-level cash protection
- TCP/IP connectivity and remote access